

The Board of Supervisors met on 9/15/20, at 9:00 a.m. in the Board Room at the Story County Administration as the Board of Canvassers for the first-tier canvass of the Special School Elections held on 9/8/20. Present were Linda Murken, Lisa Heddens, and Lauris Olson, with Chairperson Murken presiding. Murken called the meeting order at 9:15 a.m. Olson stated she would not participate in the canvass; she believes the posting of the meeting is in violation of Chapter 21. She left the meeting. Murken stated let the record show the Board has received legal advice from the Story County Attorney's Office regarding the posting of the meeting; the meeting can be held. Lucy Martin, Auditor, reported on the two school elections; due to school district boundaries, this will be a two-tier canvass. The resolution to consider today certifies the turnout of both elections for ballots cast in Story County. The canvass is final for the Nevada Community School District (CSD); its public measure passed. The first-tier is for the Story County results for Collins-Maxwell CSD. Martin three (3) provisional ballots were cast in this election: two (2) were rejected and one (1) was accepted. Martin stated the special elections were the first use of a local vendor to sanitize polling places the day after the election. The same vendor will sanitize the 43 polling locations in November. Heddens moved, Murken seconded the approval of Resolution #21-21. Motion carried unanimously (MCU) on a roll call vote. Heddens moved, Murken seconded to declare the canvass complete and certify the results of the election to the appropriate jurisdiction. Roll call vote. (MCU) Heddens moved, Murken seconded to adjourn at 9:24 a.m. (MCU)
