

The Board of Supervisors met on November 9, 2021, at 3:00 p.m. in the Board Room at the Story County Administration as the Board of Canvassers for the First-Tier Canvass of the City-School Election held on 11/2/21. Present were Lisa Heddens, Latifah Faisal, with Chairperson Heddens presiding. Linda Murken absent.

Lucy Martin, Auditor, reported twenty-two (22) provisional ballots were cast in the election: four (4) were accepted, and eighteen (18) rejected. Martin explained the first-tier canvass certifies election results in Story County. Jurisdictions which cross into other counties will have a second-tier canvass on 11/16/21 to certify total results including all counties. Martin stated four write-in candidates won office; they are not obligated to accept office and have ten days to decide. She thanked the Auditor's Office staff, particularly Election Deputy Kevin Norris, and the poll workers. She noted a number of veterans serve as election officials and to celebrate them on Veterans Day. Martin reported this is the last election to use the current precinct map. The redistricting and re-precincting from the 2020 Census will go into effect on 1/15/22. She stated Story County plans to have updated election equipment for the June primary election. Martin stated the post-election audit held on Monday was a perfect match to the tabulated results. The post-election audit board hand counted ballots cast at the Story City precinct. The precinct was randomly selected by the Secretary of State's office. Three observers attended the post-election audit. Overall election turnout for Story County was 21%; two years ago it was 12%. The Board thanked the Auditor's Office
Faisal moved, Heddens seconded the approval of Resolution #22-35. Motion carried unanimously (MCU) on a roll call vote.
