Lessor may elect to terminate this lease whether the demised premises are injured or not. A total destruction of the building in which the premises may be situated shall terminate this lease.

In the event of any dispute between Lessor and Lessee with respect to the provisions hereof, the matter shall be settled by arbitration in such a manner as the parties may agree upon, or if they cannot agree, in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

18. INSOLVENCY: In the event that a receiver shall be appointed to take over business of the Lessee, or in the event that the Lessee shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or Lessee shall take or suffer any action under any insolvency or bankruptcy act, the same shall constitute breach of his lease by Lessee.

Lessee may, in the alternative, continue this lease in effect, as long as Lessor does not terminate Lessee's right to possession, and Lessor may enforce all his rights and remedies under the lease, including the right to recover the rent as it becomes due under the lease. If said breach continues, Lessor may at any time thereafter, elect to terminate the lease.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit any other rights or remedies which Lessor may have.

Lessor may, but shall not be obligated to, apply all or portions of said deposit on account of Lessee's obligations hereunder. Any balance remaining upon termination shall be returned to Lessee. Lessee shall not have the right to apply the Security Deposit in payment of the last month's rent.

In the event that such taxes are assessed for a tax year extending beyond the term of the lease, the obligation of Lessee shall be proportionate to the portion of the lease term included in such year. Adjustments shall be made in this same manner for increases in property insurance.
