

The Board of Supervisors met on February 14, 2017, at 9:30 a.m. in the Board Room at the Story County Administration as the Board of Canvassers for the Roland Story Community School District Special Election held on Tuesday, February 7, 2017. Marty Chitty, Lauris Olson, and Rick Sanders present with Sanders presiding. Lucy Martin, Auditor, stated there was a visiting delegation of election administrators from Kosovo in the audience. The delegation came to Iowa via the Sister States program. Kassi Wheeler, International Program Manager, Iowa Sister States, introduced the delegation and gave an overview of the scheduled meetings and visits. Martin stated a bond election of this type requires 60% or more of 'Yes' votes for approval. No provisional ballots were cast in this election. Sanders read the results of the canvass. Chitty moved, Olson seconded to declare the canvass complete and to certify the results of the election to the appropriate jurisdictions. Motion carried unanimously on a roll call vote. Olson moved, Chitty seconded to adjourn at 9:36 a.m.