AGENCY AND DEPARTMENTAL REPORTS:

YSS - Denise Denton gave an update. Ms. Denton stated that recently YSS took part in Reggie's Sleepout at Jack Trice Stadium and approximately 1,000 people attended. Reggie's Sleepout was created to remind people about homelessness and to raise funds for homeless shelters. Ms. Denton reported that 1,200 7th graders recently took part in Team Maze. Team Maze is a life size game of Life dealing with real life events. Ms. Denton reported that heroin use numbers currently in Story County go up and then go back down depending on what other drugs may be available. Ms. Denton reported that survey reports are showing that kids are not thinking that tobacco use is as harmful and that this is related to more talk about other drugs and less talk about cigarettes. Discussion took place about medical usage of marijuana.

Story County Public Health – Kyle Briese stated that he has accepted a new position and will be leaving Mary Greeley. Mr. Briese stated that the Meals on Wheels program has gone through changes over the past year and shared a video about the program. Mr. Briese updated on the last two months for disease cases reported and financials. Mr. Briese stated disease cases reported were average and that there is change taking place with the state. There will be less funding available to emergency management and there will be discussion taking place with other counties about this decrease of funding taking effect July 1, 2017.

Mid-Iowa Community action (MICA) There was no one present to give report.

Story County Environmental Health – Margaret Jaynes was not present so her slide show presentation was shared with the Board. Cathy Bazylnski stated that all of the tattoo inspections have been completed and that she would be starting on the tanning bed inspections. Matthew Cory reported that there have been 12 pool inspections completed and outdoor pool inspections would start in May to be completed by the end of June. Chitty stated that there had been a master matrix meeting with much discussion taking place. Ethan Anderson stated that the findings from the meeting would be looked at by the Attorney General's office before moving forward with a local health ordinance.

4. ADDITIONAL ITEMS

-Matthew Cory reported that the septic maintenance contracts is what brought up discussion about an enforcement policy. Ms. Bazylnski stated that she sent out 41 notifications on maintenance contracts and needs to decide on how to move forward with an enforcement policy. Paschen suggested that this item be tabled until the next meeting when Ms. Jaynes is present.

-Discussion occurred about hiring a summer intern. This is a time sensitive matter because a student contacted Ms. Jaynes for a summer intern opportunity. Motion: Approve hiring a summer intern if funding is available. Motion: Obbink Second: Kluge

-Kristen Obbink gave an update on the upcoming special meeting on April 18, 2017 to discuss the Board of Health responsibilities with regard to emergency planning.
