The Board of Supervisors met on November 16, 2021, at 3:00 p.m. in the Board Room at the Story County Administration as the Board of Canvassers for the Second-Tier Canvass of the City/School Election held on November 2, 2021. Present were Lisa Heddens, Latifah Faisal, and Linda Murken with Chairperson Heddens presiding.

Lucy Martin, Auditor, reported the second-tier canvass is to certify results for jurisdictions in more than one county. This is the second and final canvass for the City-School Election. Colo-NESCO voters approved a public measure; the district had the highest percentage turnout of all the school districts. Zearing had the highest turnout of all the cities. Martin answered questions from the Board about write-in winners.
