- C. Appellant/Applicant may appear on his/her own behalf or may be represented by an agent or counsel. In the absence of a personal appearance on behalf of the applicant the Board may proceed to dispose of the case on the evidence of forms and information provided before.
- D. The Code of Ordinances gives the Board the power to compel testimony. Subpoenaed witnesses will be placed under oath; other witnesses, including the appellant/applicant, may be placed under oath.
- E. Order of Hearing:
  - I. The Chair will open the hearing at the appropriate time according to the Agenda and make whatever opening statement he/she deems appropriate, including rules for the hearing and any time limits that will be imposed.
  - II. The Planning and Development Director or County Staff will present a report on the detailed information and observations regarding the request.
  - III. The appellant/applicant will be recognized to present his/her case, and may present any information and exhibits and call witnesses as necessary to justify the request. Testimony by witnesses will be in the form of narrative statements addressed to the Board. Appellant/Applicant may be assisted by legal counsel in delivery of their narrative.
  - IV. Any witnesses subpoenaed by the Board may be called to testify. They will be questioned only by the Board.
  - V. Members of the public are recognized to make statements. No particular order is required. All interested parties shall be heard, except that repetitious testimony may be ruled out of order by the Chair. The Chair may place time limits on public testimony if deemed necessary.
  - VI. After all interested parties have been heard, the hearing shall be closed to public comment and the appellant/applicant will be recognized to make a closing statement.

VII. The Board shall then deliberate the case, formulate a resolution and vote thereon. No motion need be made to enable discussion, but any resolution must be moved and seconded and further discussion will be allowed before the vote. No comment by the appellant/applicant or the public will be recognized during deliberations by the Board, but the Board may question anyone present. The Board may examine subpoenaed witnesses at this time.

VIII. The Board shall not be bound by strict rules of evidence, but it may exclude irrelevant, immaterial, incompetent, or unduly repetitious testimony. All records, data, plats, drawings, plans and models shall be allowed as exhibits and retained as part of the case file. The Chair shall rule on questions relating to the admissibility of evidence, which may be overruled by a majority of the Board present and voting.

F. A copy of the Board's resolution accompanied by a cover letter from the Planning and Development Director is mailed to the appellant/applicant within fourteen days after the hearing.

VIII. REHEARINGS

A. A rehearing may occur at the will of the Board upon:
